

New Revised Travel Attire Policy

Gulfstream Airlines non rev travel dress code will now coincide with Continental's travel attire policies. For additional info, please see DRS: GG PASS ATTIRE or <http://gulfstreamair.com/passforms.shtml>

- All employees and retirees are responsible to ensure their pass riders, are dressed appropriately.
- A pass rider's overall appearance should be well-groomed, neat, and clean.
- Pass riders are required to adhere to the Travel Attire Policy or the pass riders will be denied boarding, even at an enroute stopover.
- Once a pass rider is boarded on the aircraft, it is inappropriate to change into unacceptable attire.
- Acceptable attire for pass travel on other airlines should be confirmed by contacting the specific carrier.

The following attire is unacceptable:

- Any attire that reveals a midriff.
- Attire that reveals any type of undergarments.
- Attire that is designated as sleepwear, underwear, or swim attire.
- Mini Skirts.
- Shorts that are shorter than 3 inches above the knee when in a standing position.
- Form-fitting lycra/spandex tops, pants and dresses.
- Attire that has offensive and/or derogatory terminology or graphics.
- Attire that is excessively dirty or has holes/tears.
- Any attire that is provocative, inappropriately revealing, or see-through clothing.
- Bare feet.
- Beach-type, rubber flip-flops

Personnel who determine a pass rider is dressed inappropriately must discuss the matter discreetly with the pass rider with dignity and respect and in a way that does not draw any attention to the issue.
